Pirate marching band takes a first place

The West Windsor-Plainsboro High School South Pirate Marching Band won first place in its division in the United States Scholastic Band Association Competition in North Brunswick.

The band also earned the awards for "Best Color Guard" and "Best Visual" in the Group II open division.

This year's show is entitled "New Beginnings."

The band will compete in several additional competitions this year, including the New Jersey State Championship and the National Championship. The band also performs at all home and away varsity football games.

The band is the defending state champion in USSBA Group II Open.
